Lunches: Lunches are available to order from Monday next week on My Child at School by Friday next week for lunches after half term. You will have to bring in a packed lunch from home if you have not ordered by then. Any queries, please speak to the office.

Cricket:

The children had a wonderful time on Tuesday at the County Ground watching the women's match against Hampshire.

Photos: The school class photos have been on sale for a few weeks now and the discount deadline has been extended to Monday 19th May to qualify. Any problems please call Tulip on 01934 752683.

OFSTED report: You will by now have seen the communication from school and online of our latest report. This has been sent to the local press. If you know of anyone wanting their child to join our wonderful school or Pre-School then please spread the word!

Celebration Day: Following our recent successful SIAMS and OFSTED inspections, next Thursday we are having a day to celebrate with Parents/Carers in the morning from 9.00am in the hall for brunch. The children can wear disco clothes as they will be having an afternoon disco. For those swimming in Ladybirds, please make sure they are wearing something suitable that they can change in and out of.
