

Inquiry Knowledge Organiser

Unit: Humankind and Ourselves

Class: Bumblebees

Title: East Brent Harvest

What should I already know

- Plants need water, light and warmth to grow.
- Food comes from plants and animals.
- People belong to different communities.
- Celebrations bring people together.
- East Brent is the village where our school is located.

Vocabulary

harvest	Gathering crops when they are ready to eat
crop	A plant grown for food
farmer	Someone who grows crops and cares for animals
community	A group of people who live and work together
tradition	Something people do again and again over many years
celebration	A special event where people come together
local	Nearby to where we live
volunteer	Someone who helps by choice
donate	To give something to help others
past	A time that has already happened
present	The time we are living in now
compare	To look at what is the same and different gratitude	Being thankful for something

Key Images

What will I know by the end of the unit?

- Harvest happens when crops are ready to be collected.
- People depend on nature to grow food.
- Farmers work with the seasons to grow crops.
- Many people help during harvest time.
- Communities work together to grow, collect and share food.
- People can donate food to help others.
- East Brent Harvest Home is an important local tradition.
- Some parts of Harvest Home have changed over time and some have stayed the same.
- Harvest celebrations help people say thank you and bring communities together.
- East Brent Harvest Home is a significant event in our local area.
- We can learn about the past using photographs and other sources.
- Historians compare the past and present to understand change.